PASSAIC COUNTY LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS ADMINISTER NALOXONE IN CLIFTON ON NOVEMBER 4, 2017

CLIFTON, NEW JERSEY:

NOVEMBER 21, 2017

Passaic County Prosecutor Camelia M. Valdes and Clifton Police Chief Mark P. Centurion announce that law enforcement officers in Passaic County administered Naloxone to one subject on November 4, 2017. Naloxone is a medicine administered by way of spray into the subject's nostrils to counteract an opioid overdose.

Clifton police officers deployed Naloxone at 8:23 p.m. to 72 year old male, who resides in Clifton, New Jersey. Officers administered one (1) dose of Naloxone and the subject became responsive. Care of the subject was transferred to local emergency medical services.

Since 2014, members of law enforcement in Passaic County have received training in the administration of Naloxone to respond to suspected opiate overdoses. This incident is the one hundred forty-eighth (148th) Naloxone deployment in Passaic County in 2017.
